Tragedy and Comedy In the Early Days

BY MRS. DORA NABERS GREENE,
Widow of the Late Jeff Greene, Early
Comanche Merchant

When we moved from Bell to Old Cora, Comanche County, I was 3 years old and my only recollection of the trip was when my young uncle, Joseph Murriell, held my baby brother, Jim Nabers, in the forks of a tree and told me: "That's a squirrel and I am going to shoot him out of the tree," and how I cried!

It seems to me that there was always something to make us afraid. Mother would not allow us children to play in the yard on moonlight nights for fear of prowling Indians. One night father and Uncle Bailey Marshall stayed in the stable loft and guarded the horses. The Indians prowled about the lot and they could hear them jabbering and talking but they did not get the horses. The same night, they shot one of Grandpa Tankersley's horses through a crack in the crib where the horses were fastened and the Indians could not get them out. Bob Tankersley yelled at them and the Inlians yelled back at him.

Once while father, Tom Deatin, and Uncle Bailey Marshall had gone to mill at Austin, the Indians came on a raid. Andy Stewart and Riley Huffman hurried to Mother's and waked her: "Aunt Lucy, get up quick; get the children up. The Indians are here and we are forting up at the Tankersley's house." Fearing to make a light we were hurring in the darkness and sister, Mary, said, "Mother, I can't find my stockings." One of the men outside exclaimed: "Never mind your stockings—come as quickly as you can." They put all of the children in one room on a pallet—Jim and I among them—and it seemed to me I never heard as many babies crying in my life. They made breastworks of the thick winter cord wood about the double log house with shed room and the men went out and guarded the house.

Our men and the Indians had a fight in the valley west of where E. E. Anthony now lives. Kenneth McKenzie had an arrow shot through him, and his brother, Jim McKenzie in helping him, was shot also, but recovered. They brought Kenneth in and he lay groaning all through the night until he died. Us children could hear the groans from the next room—so pitifully sad—all through the night.

A mare of little Bob Marshall's was shot in the fight and went home and died.

One Indian was killed and the next morning they trailed the blood to Round Mountain. After the fight all the settlers were brought to town and were forted up several days. As Father and the other men were returning and were near Indian Creek they heard a whizzing noise of an arrow and father's mules were so frightened they squatted down. But as soon as father got to town, he came for us and took us home. There were tracks of the Indians all about our home.

A few years later, Jim Tankersley, who was in the army and stationed out west, was killed by Indians as he was coming home on a furlough

Father served in the Confederate Army and nearly died with erysipylis while at Camp Colorado and mother went and nursed him back to life and health.

After the encounter of Frank Browne and John Roach, who were coming home from mill, with the Indians, and Mr. Brown had killed a chief and Mr. Roach was shot, (Mr. Brown was wounded in the face,) (He got to Uncle Jimmy Cunninghams and they got out the arrow and nursed him); Mr. Brown reported it and a posse formed and they trailed the Indians with Uncle Jimmy's dogs and one dog was killed. The Indians were surprised as they made arrows—the dogs trailed so fast that the men were upon them before either knew it, at Hog Creek Mountain. Freeman Clark was riding a big horse belonging to Uncle Fletcher Neely, and an Indian ran up under the horse and shot him off with a pistol. The horse frightened, ran and was captured by Indians. In this fight, Brother Joel and Freeman were both just school boys, and Joel's horse was killed. It took two of the horses to carry the litter that brought Freeman Clark home. He surely was a fine boy. The boys took turn about walking and riding the horses coming in home. Rev. Peter Gravis conducted his funeral and he was buried in the cemetery here.

One fall, Brother Joel, tall, lanky Tom Doole Cargyly, Jim and Little Bob Marshall, went west of town to kill the winter supply of meat of wild hogs.

One morning, while Little Bob Marshall was out scouting for Indians on horseback, the boys left in camp saw the Indias coming. They ran and hid in the brush. The Indians came to camp, stole the other horses, threw the meat on the ground and left. When little Bob returned to camp and found the horses and boys absent, and the meat scattered about, he feared Indians had captured them, so he hastened home. (Later they returned and got the wagon and some of the meat). The other boys made their way to town. Little Jim Marshall remarked: "Joel and I had to run down the side of one mountain and up the other—but Tom Doole just stepped from mountain to moutain, is the reason he got here quicker."

Down on the creek lived a man named Bush. Every now and then, he would shoot a pistol and yell, "Indians! Indians!" The men would run down to his assistance but would never find a trace of them. Finally, after this had happened several times, he called, "Indians," and someone said, "Bush has treed Indians again," and no one went.

This time Indians really came and stole his horses.

Father bought a place on Rush Creek and while he was building us a house of logs, we lived in a house that belonged to Uncle Bailey Marshall. Father cut oak trees, some burr oaks, and built us a large room and a side room. He stood an adz, made puncheons and floored it. Mother had two big beds and a trundle bed. We got water from the spring, but the water was not very cool. Mother had the boys bring a 10 gallon keg each eveping and she would wrap old quilts or sacks about it to keep it cool. We had chills on Rush so badly I nearly died, and finally we moved back to town. We often heard the scream of panthers and sometimes at night our dogs would become so frightened that they would hurl themselves against the door, from either panthers or Indians.

On Rush Creek, father raised good crops and one year raised wheat, and we had our first flour in years. Father cut the wheat with a hand scythe and when it was dry, spread it on suilts and the wagon sheet and led yoked oxen around and around to tramp the grain from the chaff. Then he threw out the stalks. Then took a spade and dipped the grain and let it fall while the wind blew the chaff away.

He carried the wheat to Uncle Ship Carnes' burr mill, a corn mill, and had it ground. Mother baked bread, and while they were flat-black looking biscuit, I thought them the best I ever ate in my life.

Out in the deep back woods from us lived an awfully green family named Griffy (Griffeth). One time they gave a dance, and Andy Stewart, Jack Carnes and Riley

Huffman just swore to mother, when she doubted their word, that during the evening, a green catydid flew into the room and Secalda Griffy, the grown daughter, in her way of helping entertain the crowd, got down on her all-fours and jumped after the catydid and said, "I eat all them kind of things I can get hold of."

After we moved back to town, each woman would give a spinning in the fall. Mother would give one and serve a big dinner at home. Grandma Neely, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Barcroft, Mrs. James, Mrs. Kiser, Mrs. Puckett, Mrs. Tankersley and all the other women in town, about 15 or 16 of them, carried their wheels to the church as it was the only place large enough to hold that many wheels. Old Grandpa Barcroft, who was as bald as an onion, always attended. He could card real fast and spin good rolls and the woman he carded for spun the most thread. When they saw him coming, all the ladies began to claim him: "Onion-hed (Inghorn) is going to card for me;" "No, for me;" "I saw him first."

Each woman had her own loom and wove her own cloth. Father always did the sizeing. He made a thin gruel of meal in the wash pot. After the thread was warped and ready to go on the warping bars, he dipped it in the gruel and hung on frames to dry. Then from a winding blade, the thread was wound on long corncobs which were fastened on long spikes driven in a long board. Then each end was tied tight together so it would not slip and was ready to fasten to the warping bars. He would take all the thread from the cobs, take it down and place it on the big beam of the loom. Mother drew the threads through the harness before it went through the yard wide sleigh. The threads were in quills made of cane, and put in shuttles. I handed her the thread and she drew it through the sleigh. She'd smash the pedal down with her left foot, throw the shuttle through with her left hand; then press down with her right foot and throw back with her right hand. She could weave 2 or 2½ yards of wool jeans in a day, and more of cotton.

She made father's and the boys winter clothing of wool jeans. It had been dyed brown from walnut roots and set with copperas.

Purple dye was made from wild plum roots. Black dye was made of the black jack bark and set with copperas. Joel and Bailey got red-rock on Rush Creek and pulverized it and made a red brick color. Sister Mary took the yellow blooms of the broom weed and made a pretty yellow dye.

Sister Mary made mother a sack of yellow and black plaid wool; and herself a dress of red and purple stripes. Sister Mary was my favorite; made my clothes, and I was broken hearted when she married and moved to Missouri where she soon died.

When I was ten years old, father bought me a wheel that old man Griffy made, sawed it off for me to use, for I had already learned to spin. As soon as I would find a wheel idle, I would slip in and try to spin—sometimes I would muss up the rolls, and cause trouble, so father got me a wheel of my own.

Adrianna Leroy, who afterward married Brother Joel Nabers, lived with Uncle Elisha and Aunt Mary Childress. Mrs. Tom Dunlap, a bride (the mother of Tom and Welbourn Dunlap) boarded with them. One day they were having Methodist Quarterly Conference at the little church where Mrs. Aaron Little now lives. Aunt Mary was hurrying the girls to get ready as she feared they would be late. Siada said, "We want to be late; we want to have to go up to the front and show our finery." They were joking, but sure enough they were late, and did have to take a seat on the very front. Both were at the giggling age, and this tickled them as their "finery" was in their minds, only. So they sat in front of the long winded preacher getting more tickled all the time. Finally they looked up and saw a boy run right in front of the window tailing a calf, and that sent them into convulsions of laughter. They bowed their heads in their hands. The Presiding Elder saw them and said solemnly: "That's right, just pray on Sisters." And they were never able to look up again.

In the seventies, Frank Sherrill, Bailey Nabers and . . . . borrowed a music box from Doc Turner and went serenading on all the young ladies in town. One held it down, one played in the records and the other ground the machine. They, in the course of the evening, serenaded Miss Bishop who was visiting at Joe Hill's. After they had played their entire rolls, Mr. Hill came out and with a good deal of enjoyment told them that the young lady in person was at a dance, and said, "Boys, you've had your trouble for nothing." So they finished serenading all the other young ladies and waited until she returned and played all the tunes over and over for an hour or longer, with Mr. Hill getting angrier all the while —until one of the boys placed a record in backward and broke up the machine and the serenade.

Another prank that caused a lot of amusement was in later years on a long, Sunday afternoon in the summer Frank Sherrill and Bailey Nabers were some of the per pretrators. They found a sack of hard, small dried u prunes and sent them with a note to each young lady in Comanche—among them: Miss Ida Todd, Miss Effie Stone and others. They signed Will Brown's name to the not which read: "Compliments of Will Brown and he would like to have your company for church tonight. If you accept, keep the fruit; if you do not accept, please return the fruit." The young ladies suspected a joke somewhere and all returned the fruit. Mrs. Brown, Will's mother, was indignant at the joke, but Will took it in good humor.

Every year there were camp meetings held under a brush arbor near where the old T. O. Moore house is standing. Some girls from Restless Creek always attended They were great shouters and would shout all over the congregation until they would be in front of some young men, then would faint for the young men to catch them in their arms. One time when they shouted and fainted the hard hearted young men stepped aside and let the fall across the puncheon seat and nearly broke their back —and it did break them from shouting.

One night a woman went into a trance after shouting, and one of the singers who held a candle while they stood to sing, was trying to see who had fallen into the trance. He caught the brush arbor on fire and Brother Bailey said she was the first one out from under the arbor which burned down.

A woman used to be very earnest and shout; I remember how she would catch hold of the board that served for a pulpit, in front of the preacher and say, "Pray, you must pray, get down to your knitting, get down to your knitting," she would exclaim and when we children would be playing church at home, we always shouted, "Get down to your knitting."

After I was married, which I quit school to do, I was kept frightened all the time because Mr. Greene was the City Marshal and the country was full of desperadoes, horse thieves, robbers, murderers, and he was afraid of none of them—but I was afraid for his life. We made a trip to Dallas in an open-top buggy and were followed through the Cross Timers by two deperadoes, heavily armed, on horseback. The Brazos River was up and our team had to swim across.

Once, Mr. Greene awakened me as I cried in my sleep. "Dora, what on earth is the matter?" he asked me. "I have had a horrible dream. I dreamed that Joe and Fleete were killed and that father's house was on fire." After awhile I slept again; then Jeff awoke me again. "Dora, what is the matter, now?" he inquired again. "It's that same horrible dream," I said. I slept and dreamed it for the third time and while yet awake from the very vividness and horror of it, Boss Greene came and called: "Jeff, get up quick, Uncle Jack's house is on fire and Joe and Fleete are killed. Sister Fannie and I reached the bed mattress where the children had been carried out and they were both as they appeared in the dream, Joe, with his face chopped open, and Fleete, with his throat slit; and two little negro girls burned in the flames. Later Old Mose was shot and while there was never any proof, I always felt that Old Negro George had aided him.

Joe and Fleete always read a chapter in the Bible at Mother's knee. That night Joe had read the 59th Psalm, a part of which goes: "Deliver me from my enemies oh my God; defend me from them that rise up against me. Deliver me from workers of iniquity and save me from bloody men. For lo they lie and wait for my soul; the mighty are gathered against me, not for my transgressions —nor my sin, O Lord."

There were many courageous men and women who lived in the early days of Comanche County. I could tell of their brave deeds, kind acts, and unswerving friendship and loyalty to us and to our neighbors. The Hamiltons, Sherrills, Cunninghams, Campbells, Tates, Frank Wilson, Henry Ware, Uncle Jack Wright, Uncle Mart Fleming, Crosses, Cox, Tankersleys, Burley Taylor, Neelys, Elisha Childress, Jim Murriell, McGuires, Carnes, Pucketts, Barcrofts, Dan Pinkard, Stewarts, Huffman, Cokers, Marshalls, and many others, in the 70's. Later Dick Armstrong, Billy Lee, Judge Lindsey, Billy Carroll, L. B. Russell, Burks, Lasseters, Chiltons, Holmans, and others.

If I had the time, I could tell of all our hardships, and times were hard, but we had a love for each other that helped us to bear whatever trials that came upon us.

HOW TO USE THIS INDEX

THE INDEX TO THE 1850 FEDERAL CENSUS IS PRINTED IN FOUR COLUMNS. THE FOLLOWING PARAGRAPHS EXPLAIN THE MEANING OF EACH COLUMN WITH OTHER NECESSARY DETAILS FOR ITS USE.

COLUMN ONE

THE FIRST COLUMN LISTS IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER THE NAME OF THE INDIVIDUALS FOUND IN THE ORIGINAL CENSUS RECORD. IT SHOULD BE UNDERSTOOD THAT ALL OF THE NAMES ARE NOT INDEXED, BUT ONLY THOSE INDIVIDUALS WHO APPEAR AS THE HEAD OF A FAMILY, OR ANYONE LIVING WITHIN THE HOME WITH A DIFFERENT SURNAME. THE FOLLOWING EXAMPLES WILL ILLUSTRATE THIS. THOSE NAMES WHICH WOULD APPEAR IN THE INDEX ARE MARKED WITH AN ASTERISK (*).

FAMILY #1	JOHN SMITH*	43	M
	SALLY "	42	F
	JOHN " JR.	19	M
	SARAH "	15	F
	WILLIAM "	12	M
	JOHN THOMPSON*	23	M
	SALLY "	22	F
	WILLIAM SMITH	73	M
	FRANCES JONES*	70	F
FAMILY #2	JOHN WILLIAMS*	22	M
FAMILY #3	SAMUEL WILLIAMS*	29	M
	JANE "	30	F
	PHEBE "	15	F
	WILLIAM OLSON*	3/12	M

TWO OTHER POINTS OF IMPORTANCE SHOULD BE NOTED. FIRST, THE ASTERISK IN THE INDEX FOLLOWING A NAME INDICATES THAT THE SPELLING OF THE NAME IS IN QUESTION IN THE ORIGINAL TEXT. SECOND, WHEN GIVEN NAMES ARE ABBREVIATED IN THE CENSUS AND THE ABBREVIATION IS CLEARLY UNDERSTOOD, THE NAME IS WRITTEN OUT IN THE INDEX.

COLUMN TWO

COLUMN TWO CONTAINS A FOUR LETTER CODE WHICH PERTAINS TO THE COUNTIES. EACH CODE USES THE FIRST THREE LETTERS OF THE REGULAR SPELLING OF THE COUNTY; THUS PROV STANDS FOR PROVIDENCE COUNTY, NEWP STANDS FOR NEWPORT COUNTY, WASH STANDS FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY, KENT STANDS FOR KENT COUNTY, AND BRIS STANDS FOR BRISTOL COUNTY.

[1] Mobile District was only a political division under the treaty of 10 Mar 1763 between England and France.

[2] The Province of Louisiana was formed in 1705 but did not serve as a county as we know it, and was subsequently divided into 9 districts for Mississippi, Alabama, and Louisiana.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER HAM (BILL)
AND
MARGRETT EMELY (MARTIN) HAM

Members of the family of William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill), always stated that Bill was born in Tennessee on the Duck River. The Duck River branches off the Tennessee River in Humphries County and flows eighty one miles, snaking through Hickman, Marshall and Muary Counties. Then the river wanders through Bedford County passing through the town of Shelbyville, ending at the Normandy Lake just inside Coffee County. He could have been born along this river at any point, because records do not seem to exist to give us an exact location. However, because Bill's father, Joel W. Ham probably met and married Nancy Gilbert, Bill's mother in Shelbyville in Bedford County, Tennessee, it is more likely Bill was born at or near Shelbyville.

When William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) was about four years old, in December 1837, his father, Joel W. Ham moved the family to San Augustine County, Texas. They later moved to Shelby County, Texas, where they were living in 1850. Bill was 17, and a farmer at the time. Later he became a stockraiser, and a carpenter, nevertheless, only "farmer" was indicated on census reports throughout the years. On a tax report in 1873, Comanche County, Texas, it was recorded that Bill owned 112 cattle and one horse, proving he did raise cattle. This would verify what the family has passed down over the years. Early in Texas History, cattle roamed wild over the whole area. Texans soon learned to gather them, operating cattle ranches, instead of farms. Is this the way Bill became in procession of his herd? The answer to that is "probably". There were to many free head of cattle for a Texan of that day to buy them. Cattle meant wealth to the Texan if he drove them to the right location to sell, thus the cattle drives come into being. The first brand recorded in the county was recorded by Bill's wife's (Margrett) brother-in-law, Kin (Kenneth McKinzie) on 02 June 1856.

Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) met young Margrett Emely Martin, daughter of Henry R. Martin, Sr. and Eleanor (Dooley) Martin, either in Texas or Louisiana. We know that the Joel W. Ham family moved to Louisiana after the census was taken in 1850, and before the registering of the 1860 Census Report. Whether or not their son, William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) went with them to Louisiana before his marriage, is not known. The young pair were married on 22 January 1852, when Margrett was less than fifteen and a half years old.

Just what happened next in their lives we are not sure, but we do know that William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) and his brother-in-law Henry R. Martin, Jr. were the first two settlers on Sweetwater Creek, in Comanche County, Texas. The exact date of their arrival in Comanche County is not known, but family data tells us their first daughter, Margrett Josephine was born at Sweetwater Creek District, Comanche County, Texas on 12 April 1856. She was born in the same cabin as the rest of the children, per-data from family. It is believed that the couple arrived with or about the time as the B.J. Holmsleys family (they were friends), F.M Collier, Joseph Hicks, Jesse Mercer, F.N. Neely families and others in 1853. We do know that Henry R. Martin, Jr. didn't arrive with his family in Comanche until 1859.

Stories of Henry R. Martin, Jr. have him visiting his father, Henry R. Martin, Sr., in Bell County in 1853. Could it be that Henry, Jr. stopped to see his younger sister, Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham in Western Louisiana or Eastern Texas, on his way to Bell County? If so, Margrett and her new husband, Bill might have traveled with him on his journey to the frontier. Bill and Margrett might have also moved to Bell County with Henry R. Martin, Sr., but we have no prove of either. Upon arrival of the young Henry at Henry, Sr.'s, home in Bell County, Texas, Henry, Jr. and Bill might have traveled to the Sweetwater Creek District, in Comanche County, and laid claim to the land. The same year Bill and Margrett must have moved to their new home. This would give the reason why, William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) legally, later claimed to having been in the area of Comanche County, Texas since 1853. William and Margrett Ham are on the 1860 Census Report for Louisiana. It's believed they were visiting Bill's parents. Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) was in Comanche, Comanche County, Texas in 1858 and 1859, because he felled the first tree used in building the first Court House in the town of Comanche, which was started in 1858 and finished in 1859. That Court House was called the "picket house". The logs were cut and split on the site, and set vertically in a ditch, and then covered with the boards also made on the site. The "Picket House" burned down in March of 1862. Only District Court Records and Deeds were saved from the fire. The population of the county of Comanche in 1860 was only 90 men, women and children. However, another source states there were only 61 people in the Comanche area.

Bill's and Margrett's first daughter, Margrett Josephine Ham (Jo), born on 12 April 1856, in the cabin built by Bill, lived, romped, played, laughed, cried, ate, and slept with her other brother's and sister's all their young lives. Margrett gave birth to eleven children:

George and Mary lived their lives out in El Cajon, a town just outside of San Diego.

Luther Edgar died when he was about eleven and a half years old.

Charles David their youngest child never married, he worked hard, and finally moved to Burkburnett, Texas where he worked, and at forty two died.

The creek near where Bill built their log cabin, was called Sweetwater Creek, because of the sweet taste of the water. Just who named the creek is not known, but it was named by the pioneers of the county in the early years. Maybe Bill or Margrett gave it it's name, since they were the only ones living near the creek at that time. It was called the Sweetwater District for years, before Districts became Precincts. Bill being a good carpenter, made all the furniture for the Ham's first home in the Comanche area. As time passed, and the need for more furniture presented itself, he continued to create nice pieces. This leaves us to wonder if he might have made furniture for some of his fellow settlers. One piece of his work, a desk, is still in the family. It's been transferred from creator, William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) to Bill's son, George Dallas Ham, to George's daughter, Freida (Ham) Pool, then to Freida's niece, Willie Lee (Ham) Salisbury-Brown (Herbert Reed Ham's daughter) and to Willie's son, Randy Steven Salisbury, who is in procession of it in the year, 1993. This desk, that was used by Bill's and Margrett's children for school work is still in great shape.

In the first years of settlement the pioneers build their homes out of scrub oaks they cut for lumber, because the closest milled lumber was in Coryell County about 60 or so miles away. Most of the supplies needed to maintain life in the frontier had to be shipped in. The log cabin Bill built for his family was the Ham family home for a long time (called the "Homestead"). All the children were raised in this first structure. Later another house was built, and the log cabin was eventually torn down. The last home built was still standing in 1987. At that time the land and house was owned by a Walter G. Mazurek family. William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) had 1/2 section of land (320 acres) granted to him by the government. The land was divided among the children. Each child received 40 acres and a house. Each of the children sold, at different times, their 40 acres to the oldest son, John Daniel Ham. John left the land to his two children, James Ottis Ham and Willie Vei (Ham) Stockman, when he died.

Most of Margrett's family also moved to the Comanche County area about the same time. Names of members of the families were Ham, Martin, McGuire, McKinzie, and Neil. Life wasn't easy for the settlers that moved to this new area which in the 1850's and 1860's was definitely the "Wild and Woolly West". There were wild animals like bear, panther, deer, wild pig, antelope, buffalo and cattle, and unfriendly Indians roaming free through the forests, and out on the prairie. Comanche County is about 1350 feet above sea level all over the county, except in the southwest corner were it climbs to 1850 feet. Once it was level limestone plain drained by ancient rivers, and the land was created when it rose from the drainage of the ancient Comanche Sea. The soil was rich, and well suited for farming.

Comanche County was created out of Bosque and Coryell Counties. The pioneers generated the small community of Cora, which was located in the Southeast part of Comanche County on the North bank of the South Leon River. Later it was known as the Pettit community, but in 1987 little remained. Devoted individuals interested in the progress of their County built a court house with their own hands. Men like John A. McGuire, Henry R. Martin, Sr., T.C. Frost, John P. Pettit were among the many who helped. Cora served as the County Seat. Three terms of District Court were held in Little Cora, as the court house was later called. There were trials held for theft and murder. Indictments took place for crimes such as unlawfully playing cards, drinking of alcohol on Sunday, having a pistol on his person, rudely displaying a pistol in a public place, seriously threatening to take the life of another, disturbing a congregation gathered for religious worship, and etc. The little court house was full of various activities that were taking place, but it stood strong. In order to save "Little Cora" years after the county seat was moved to the town of Comanche, concerned citizens had "Little Cora" moved to a hill overlooking Lake Eanes and the park. In 1987 it was sitting on the town square in front of the latest court house, and next to the historical "Fleming Tree", the only old tree left on the town square. This tree remained, because with rifle in hand, Mr. Fleming would not allow the tree to be cut down. He said, "that tree had saved his life as a boy, from the Indians.

The above story is one that is the most appealing to one's emotions. However, it's not true. In the year 1854, before Comanche was a town, Mart Fleming first visited the county with his father. At the time, where the court house stands today, was a postoak grove. It was summer so Mart Fleming slept under what is now the famous "Fleming Tree". As the years passed it was used by Mart Fleming and others to tie up their horses.

Many years later, about 1911, when the paving of the Square was started, all the trees were ordered to be cut down. With the threat of using his "No. 10's", which the workmen thought was a 10-guage shotgun, they left the tree standing. Later"Uncle Mart" as he was fondly called at the time, confused that he wouldn't have shot anyone. He had only meant he would have used his size 10 boots on them.

He came again to the defense of his tree in 1919, when talk was once more spread that the tree should be removed. After these unknowing citizens learned the history of the tree, it remained. When in his 80's Uncle Mart was quoted as saying, "They since have paid due respect to the old live oak". Today "his tree" remains, and the Citizens of Comanche are highly pleased when they see or point out this "Living Memorial" of their earliest heritage.

The new town of Comanche was formed when part of Comanche County was given to create the County of Hamilton. John Duncan gave 240 acres of land on the Indian Creek for the City of Comanche in 1858. The land sits in the middle of the county, and made a good site for the County Seat. The Commissioner's Court accepted Mr. Duncan's offer of the land, and the town was established in 1858. The first courthouse was then built.

The Indians made life miserable for the first settlers, because this was a favorite spot of the Indians. There were plenty of wild animals, berries, nuts, fruits and honey from the "bee trees" to provide food for the tribes. They considered this area their domain. They didn't want to share it with the white man, although they didn't make this a permanent home. The tribes wondered over a year in a large area from Kansas to the North into Northern Mexico to the South. At first the warriors try to scare, intimidate, steal the horses, and scatter the livestock of these intruders. There were so few settlers in the area, and this isolation made it very easy for the Indians to ride in, and steal the settler's horses. These were Kiowa and Comanche Indians. The Comanche Indians had always measured their wealth in horses. The horses were used to trade with the Northern Indians. Later the killing of the settlers began, when the Indians decided they couldn't chase the white man away by taking their horses and livestock. Indian raids continued in Comanche County from its early settlement in 1856, until 1875, when the federal troops rounded up the last few bands of renegades and placed them on a reservation at Fort Sill, Oklahoma under military control.

Another brother-in-law, John A. McGuire built a make shift fort on the Indian Creek near Cora, for the people to gather when the Indians started their raids. On one such occasion, Margrett's two sister's husbands were holding off the Indians until everyone could get to the fort. Mary A. (Martin) McKinzie's husband, Kenneth McKinzie was wounded seriously, his brother and Nancy E. (Martin) McKinzie's husband, James went to help him. James was also wounded, but the two brother made it to the fort. Kenneth hung on all night in terrible pain, but in the morning he passed away. James lived through his ordeal, but unhappily was an invalid all the rest of his life. On another occasion Mary A. (Martin) McKinzie's youngest son, John D. McKinzie, Sr. was captured by the Indians, but he was returned the same day. There is no record as to why they returned him. After Kenneth's death the Indians took all of Mary's stock. Mary married two years later to a man named Jenkins, and they moved to Arkansas. After the threat of the Indians ended the couple returned to Comanche.

The word "Comanche" is the Spanish spelling of the Ute Indian word Komantcia, which meant "enemy" or "one always wanting to fight". A Comanche is a North American plains Indian of Shoshonean stock, who ended in reservations, because they couldn't get along with others.

One Indian story that has remained with the Ham family is about Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham. For their protection the homesteaders made up shopping lists, and only one or two men would go for supplies for everyone in the area. Shopping could take days instead of an hour like it does today. On one occasion when Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) was taking his turn on the journey for supplies, he had to leave his family home alone. After running out of water in the cabin, Margrett decided to gather up the children and go to the creek for a nice fresh pail of water. They were having a nice stroll along the trail in the warm sunshine, when Margrett noticed to her dismay feathers sticking in and out among the brushes along the path. She calmly gathered her children close to her, telling them not to act afraid. Then she continued on to the creek. After filling her pail with the cool water, the small group started back along the same path to the cabin. As they passed an Indian he would fall in behind Margrett and her tiny, very frighten babies. As she moved along more and more of the red men followed staying only a short distant behind them. At the cabin, Margrett put the children in the middle of her bed, and quietly ordered them to stay there. She then turned to face the red men who had followed her into her home with their dirty dogs. With sign language the Indians demanded food. She cooked for the gathering in her spotless home, and held her tongue while she watched them eat with their hands, throwing her prized dishes around, breaking some, and feeding their dogs on her spotless floor.

Much later, after filling their stomachs, to her relief the Indians left, without hurting her or the children (It may be possible that the Indians were Kiowa instead of Comanche). However, her anger at the savages disregard of her home and skimpy belongings bothered her more than anything else did. She cleaned everything with a passion, and last the floor was washed with lye. Only then would she allow herself to rest, and relieve the pressure with tears. Her children remember her as a perfectionist, a very clean perfectionist.

The frontier women were strong and brave ladies. Another story that has traveled through the family showed Margrett as strong, quick thinking, brave and full of life. As a young girl, Margrett was sent on an errand quite a distance from where she lived in Murray County, Georgia, where she grew up. After completing her assigned duty, she swung back onto her horse and headed for home. Much to her distress, and a long two miles from her destination, she encountered a hungry, mean looking cougar. Not wasting any time, she urged her horse into a run. The horse was as anxious as Margrett to get away from this large, wild American cat. However, with the speed this animal possessed it wasn't long until the cat had gained on the frightened pair. Margrett was wearing her favorite hat, but she yanked it from her head, and with all her might she flung it over her shoulder. Detaining this unwelcome traveling companion was her only thought. To her delight the cougar stopped to sniff her pretty head cover. The last she saw of her prized possession the cougar was ripping it to threads. The horse gained only a short distance, and soon the cougar's long strides had him close behind again. Margrett's sweater was the next article of distraction. Her quick thinking in discarding her personal items made it possible for her to arrive home safely. The strip tease probably saved her life.

The Civil War put a stop to the migration into Comanche County. Most of the men who moved to Texas were from the South, so they left to join the confederate army. This left only a few men to defend themselves and their homes against the Indians. In the spring of 1861 Indians came into the County, and stole every horse, which left the settlers without even teams to prepare the fields for crops. They scattered the livestock, and began killing men, women and children. Five wagonloads of flour accompanied by armed guards from Bell County were the only thing that saved the people of Comanche County from starvation. The Martins had many relatives in Bell County, but we can not document who it was that organized the flour delivery into the area. The threat from the Indians grew between the years of 1863 and 1866, and many families moved away.

Many of the settlers hunted wild hogs, and sold them to near by communities. The Texas Longhorn were everywhere, so the settlers drove them to Louisiana for supplies. In order to farm or ranch, settlers had to clear the land of trees and stumps. This was called "Patch" farming. It provided for the settlers needs, but left only a small amount of harvested goods for selling. Roads were few, and during the rainy season the trails would soon have themselves covered with overgrowth again. This meant there was very little commerce in those early years.

Life was hard, but these strong individuals survived, and Comanche grew. Comanche became the supply center for Texas farms and ranches. The town was incorporated in 1873. By 1874 Comanche was the model of a Cowman and Rancher's town, with a population of about one thousand people. Comanche had seven saloons, and the men found relaxation in card games, horse racing and billiards. The women kept themselves busy with household duties, raising children, church socials and quilting bees.

Comanche had it's outlaws, as well, with the most noted being John Wesley Hardin. John Wesley's father was a Comanche Minister, and was held in high regard by the citizens of Comanche. He was thoroughly devoted to religion. He had another son, Joe Hardin who was a practicing lawyer in town.

In 1874, John Wesley Hardin and his friend Jim Taylor appeared in Comanche with a string of race horses. They were wanted for murder in De Witt County at the time, and every Texas Ranger was on the look out for threat from the Indians grew between the years of 1863 and 1866, and many families moved away.

After a stop at Hardin's father's house, the outlaws left town.

At the same time this was going on same Texas Rangers who had been camped at historical "Ranger Springs" east of Comanche came into town and arrested Joe Hardin, Aleck Barrickman, and Anderson. They were jailed in temporary quarters in a house on the northeast corner of the square, because a new courthouse was being built at the time. Guards were posted around the accomplices. About three hundred men from Comanche and Brown Counties rode into the square around two o'clock in the morning. After disarming the guards the mob took the trio three miles southwest of Comanche and hanged them.

It wasn't until 1877 that John Wesley Hardin was arrested by a Texas Ranger in Florida. He was brought to Austin, Texas and jailed. Six Texas Rangers from Company E were sent to bring Hardin back to Comanche. He was tried and sentenced to prison for twenty-five years, at the penitentiary at Huntsville. Hardin served part of his term and then was pardoned. In an El Paso saloon Hardins life as a feared desperado ended. Shot by a lawman.

Bill was an active Mason or Freemason, and worked on their projects. The school system of Comanche was established in early 1871. The Police Court organized the county into five school districts on 30 January 1871. At the same time the Police Court was acting, Comanche Masonic Lodge No. 316 was also preparing for the education of Comanche's youth. In the spring of 1871 the lodge purchased ground for the building of a school, and the following spring construction was begun. The building was occupied in the fall of 1872. The first board of trustees, all members of Comanche Lodge No. 316 was composed of J.M. Holmsley, Albert Sowell, P.W. Gravis, Nathan Yarbrough, and James G. Hardin. It was Peter Gravis that was the connecting link between the Margrett Josephine married a school teacher, and after the birth of three of their six children, moved to Amarillo, Texas. The couple lived out the remainder of their lives there.

John Daniel married, had two children, and opened the first lumber yard in De Leon. John served as bank director, and he and his socialite wife lived out their lives in De Leon, Texas.

Nancy Ellen, who was named after her two grandmothers, died when she was just under four years old.

William Alexander, Jr., married, had three children, and lost his young wife. He moved away from his home in Comanche.

Joel Henry, named after his two grandfathers, married and had at least nine children. He fought in the Spanish - American War, 1895 - 1898. He left Comanche, also.

James Edward died just nine days after his birth. His resting place is unknown.

Martha Jane married and had one boy, but she died at the age of twenty two. Martha is buried at Suggs cemetery in Comanche, Comanche County, Texas.

Thomas Franklin married and lived on the land owned by his father and mother. His wife, Mary gave birth to seven children, six of who lived to maturity. Tom was a farmer and a carpenter. The couple lived their lives out in Los Angeles County in California.

George Dallas (this author's grandfather) married, Mary Lorene Gibbs. They had twelve children, who all lived to adulthood. However, they lost their oldest son in World War I. George moved his family away from Comanche several times only to return. George had a green thumb, but he didn't like farming. He worked as a weigh master for many large farms when he wasn't putting in a crop of something or other for himself. The last time he left he moved to Puducah, Cottle County, Texas, then to Colorado, back to Clarendon, Texas, and then in 1932 most of his family moved to the San Diego, California area. Three of the couples children and several or their grandchildren joined the armed forces during World War II.

The John Calvin McCamey Family

John Calvin McCamey came with his family to Murray County, Ga., about 1844. His parents were Alexander and Malinda (Borden) McCamey. Alexander McCamey was born in Virginia, reared in Tennessee and was the son of Samuel McCamey who came from Ireland. John Calvin was one of 16 children, 15 lived to maturity: Sarah, Mary, William, James, David, Meryman, John C., Jane, Eliza, Elizabeth, Alpha, Martha, David, Samuel and Malinda.

In 1853, John Calvin left Murray Co., Ga., to make his home in Texas. March 1856 he came to Comanche Co., made a squatter's claim of 160 acres and was made a grant of that property Feb. 24, 1874 by Edmund J. Davis, Governor of Texas. John Calvin was among the early settlers and prominent farmers of the county. He was married three times. He first married Sarah L. Martin, 7 March 1858 in Comanche Co. Sarah was a native of Murray Co., Ga. She had come to Texas with her father Henry R. Martin, Sr. Sarah's mother Ellender (Dooly) Martin died in Arkansas in 1853. John Calvin and Sarah had five children: (1) Pulaski, (2) Calvin Lafayette, (3) Caldonia, (4) Mary Ellen and (5) Josephine Ann. All reached maturity and were married. Sarah L. (Martin) McCamey died in 1873. Sarah's father, Henry R. Martin, Sr., was born in Edgefield district, South Carolina, in 1800. He was prominent in the development of Comanche Co. He married a second time to Stacy McKinzie, 16 March 1865. He died 10 September 1882.

Sarah and John Calvin's daughter Caldonia married Robert Franklin Thomas of Comanche Co., Texas, October 18, 1888. His parents were William and Martha Jane (Sisson) Thomas, both born in Alabama, reared in Arkansas. Robert and Caldonia had three children: Meddie D., Emma Gertrude and Freddie Morris.

John Calvin McCamey's second marriage was to Lucinda C. Howry, 29 July 1875. They had five children: (1) Edward, (2) Julia, (3) Alpha, (4) John and (5) Emma. His third marriage was to Mrs. Josephine Lincoln, 10 April 1895. The date of John Calvin McCamey's death is uncertain but is believed to be between 1901 and 1903.

I am the granddaughter of Caldonia McCamey Thomas, daughter of Emma Gertrude Hare.

Early Days In Comanche Described

(By L. B. Russell)

The history of a country is the history of its people; and the history of the people is the history of individuals and of families.

I happened to straggle into Comanche County on the night of October 10, 1876, at 11 p.m. That was my first night here. James Franklin, my brother-in-law, lived on the block now occupied by Sherwood McDonald, in a small box house which later belonged to W. P. Cook and was dynamited about thirty years ago. The second night, October 11, we stayed all night with G. A. Beeman, my wife's brother, who was living in a newly built little stone house about two or three blocks northwest of the square, and perhaps owned now by Miss Eugenia Gray.

This was about twenty years and six months after the county was organized and but a little longer after the first settlement made in this part of the territory comprising Comanche County.

I became acquainted with some of the pioneer settlers, among them Dr. Tuggle, Ben Lasseter and a number of others. But my stay at that time was only about a year and a half, when the death of my father made it necessary to go back to Southern Texas, and I was gone about seven years before returning to Comanche.

The County Clerk's office, I learned from a close inspection of the records, was opened for business June 2, 1856, and I collected from the brand records a good many years ago, the names of those who had had their stock brands recorded. Since then, the records have become worn out and badly mutilated, so it would probably be impossible to find these early dates as I had copied them.

The first names on the brand records were the McKinzies—Kenneth, John D. and James E. McKinzie. Then came, on the same day the names off some of Uncle Charley's family; Charles C. Campbell, Amelia Annette Campbell, Arcadia Matilda Campbell and Martha Josephine Campbell. These, with Jesse Bond, Lewis Bond, C. C. Bond and Obadiah Taylor, Edwin D. Whitney, Joseph Hicks, Cass Bond, Nancy Jane Bond, A. J. Hoover, Francis M. Holmsley, John Taylor, and two other Holmsleys, initials worn, these were recorded June 4, 1856; also Martha J. Holmsley, Thomas A. Collier, and Burrell J. Holmsley. William S. Holmsley appears to have his brand recorded June 8.

On the 10th of June, Asa and Jesse Reed's were recorded.

Then a skip in dates was made until August 29, when another big batch of brands was entered: Jesse Mercer, Capt. James Cunningham, Francis M. Collier, Richard T. Cunningham, John McGuire, William Reed, John Blevins, Matilda Johnson, all on August 29, 1856.

On September 2, 1856, appears the names of Alex H. Tuggle, Harriet E. Tuggle, Lucien L. Tuggle, John D. Deane, and on the 10th September, Adam M. Self, Frederick B. Gentry, Basil E. Cox, and Margaret Cox.

H. F. Hoover and John Williams got on record Sept. 10; Thomas Hunter Sept. 13, Sarah E. Talley and O. T. Tyler, who later moved to Bell County. He was father of the late George W. Tyler of Belton, who was Grand Master of Masons at the time the cornerstone of our present courthouse was formally laid by the Grand Lodge in special session.

Pausing here a moment for a few details of some of the names mentioned in the foregoing list:

The first name, Kenneth McKinzie, was that of the man killed by Indians almost within the present town limits of Comanche, about 1860.

Charles C. Campbell, always familiarly known as "Uncle Charlie" and his wife, "Aunt Julia," were the parents of 21 children, and in the language of a poem I have recited a few times, "Twenty-one children, and not one bad." In my judgment, which is shared by everybody who knew the family, no finer family ever settled in our giant State of Texas. Nearly all of them have passed off the stage of life, but their influence was all good.

Many of the brand-owners I never knew, hence the omissions signify nothing as to their character.

Joseph Hicks was related to the Neely family, and Francis M. Holmsley was the late Doctor Holmsley, whom it was my good fortune to know as one of the cleanest gentlemen within my knowledge.

John Taylor, I understand was a son-in-law of Burrill J. Holmsley, his brother-in-law, plowed the first furrow ever made in Comanche County, one driving several yokes of oxen, and the other holding the plow.

Captain James Cunningham was a historic character, commanding a company of rangers, and his wife, "Aunt Susie" was nearly as well known for her sturdy traits as a typical frontier woman, as was her husband for his leading and commanding citizenship. Richard T. Cunningham the late "Uncle Dick", who died only a few years ago. He, with others of Captain Cunningham's company, was a participant in the Dove Creek fight with the Indians. John McGuire, I think, was about the third sheriff of Comanche County; James C. Martin being the first, and Tom Deaton the second.

Dr. Tuggle's family had all their brands recorded the same day; the Doctor himself does not appear to have claimed a brand, but he was one of the most prominent of the pioneers. He hailed from Georgia and in his earlier years had been an intimate acquaintance and associate of some of Georgia's leading statesmen.

John Deane was living and in business when I first arrived in Comanche. He kept a store in what was known as the "Glass Front" on the north side.

HANSON CEMETERY

Located about 2¼ miles out of De Leon, Texas on Hwy. 16. Turn left just as you approach the Sabanna River bridge. Go through a locked metal gate. The cemetery is located in the northwest corner of the farm, formerly owned by a Hanson family, and is now owned by David Edward Clayton of Stephenville, Texas in 1980. The cemetery is fenced with barbed wire, not maintained, and has grown up in old iris bulbs and bushes. Copied 19 March 1980 by David Clayton and Shirley Clayton Cawyer.

First Postmaster Killed

Jim Tankersley, Comanche's first postmaster, was also a trader, and when he and another man were taking a load of meat to Fort McKavett, they both were killed by Indians near Trickham in Coleman County.

April 18, 1872, Joe Hardin, the brother of John Wesley Hardin was appointed postmaster at Comanche. He served until April 1873; later he was hanged by a mob in the woods east of Oakwood Cemetery. Judge Nathan Yarbrough was appointed to succeed Hardin. Yarbrough was re-appointed April 5, 1875, and served until 1881.

Comanche Post Office Department

According to a 1963 issue of the Comanche Chief (along with a 1924 article by Murt J. Sullivan) the oldest institution in Comanche County except the courthouse organization is the U. S. Post Office which has been in constant operation since April 27, 1869. The post office was established May 31, 1860 with James H. Tankersley as postmaster. Tankersley served as postmaster until Texas joined the Southern Confederacy February 23, 1861 in a convention held at Austin. The votes of the delegates to the convention were seventy-seven to seven to join the Southern Confederacy.

The vote was then submitted to the voters of the different counties of Texas and the proposition carried by a vote of about 10 to 1. Governor Sam Houston was one of the main men who opposed the measure.

On the 16th day of March 1861 Governor Houston left his official chair at Austin as Governor of Texas and retired to his private home in Waller County where he died July 1863 and was buried at Huntsville where his grave on the Sam Houston State College campus is a public shrine today.

Just when Tankersley resigned as postmaster, if he did do so, is not revealed in history. Since the Southern Confederacy had a Post Office Department with a Postmaster General, it is reasonable to suppose that Tankersley served as postmaster for the Confederacy during the Civil War.

The record simply says Tankersley was appointed postmaster May 31, 1860 and that the post office was discontinued January 23, 1867 and re-established April 27, 1869 when Thomas J. Nabers was appointed postmaster. Since that time the U. S. Post Office has been continuous.

There was a vast difference in the amount of business done in the post office at Comanche when it was established more than 100 years ago when the mail to the few settlers was brought in from Gatesville in a "gig" or on horse back, and was handled in a cubby-hole at a private residence and the system of 1924 when four clerks and eight carriers were empolyed in addition to the postmaster.

There is still a greater difference when compared with the office of 1962 when two regular clerks and two substitute clerks are employed and two city mail carriers, five rural route carriers, one star route carrier, a custodian, in additioin to the postmaster making a payroll force of fourteen, housed in a fine fireproof Federal Building with a replacement value of $150,000.

When the original office was established there were no money orders nor parcel post, and postal saving deposits were unheard of. At the present time more stamps are sold, and more mail delivered in one day than there would be in an entire year at that time.

There was a post office at Cora established as early as July 2, 1858 when Thomas C. Frost was appointed postmaster. That post office was discontinued September 9, 1868 according to Uncle Clayte Carnes who said that the first mail was brought to Cora from Gatesville in a two-wheel gig with Sam Bigham as carrier.

When the post office was established in Comanche with Mr. Tankersley as postmaster it was operated in his dwelling house on the lot about where Henderson's Super Market of 1962 was located. This house was the same residence where the settlers gathered their women and children the night Kin McKinzie, brother of the late George McKinzie, was killed by Indians.

When the post office was re-established at Comanche after the Civil War, April 27, 1869 Thomas J. Nabers was appointed postmaster with Uncle Bill Carnes as his assistant.

From Comanche County, Texas Country Cemeteries the location of Zion Hill Cemetery is said to be about seven miles north of Comanche, Texas and about one mile west of Hwy. 16 alongside a county road. The cemetery is very well maintained and is enclosed with a chain link fence. The entire cemetery has recently been sprayed with a weed killer leaving the enclosure barren of any vegetation. About 95 graves were counted with field stones or old funeral markers that did not have names or dates. Copied April 24, 1976 by Weldon Hudson of Fort Worth, Texas. Copied from west to east.

From Comanche Gravestone Inscriptions the location of Zion Hill Cemetery is said to be northwest of the Vandyke community in Comanche County and may be reached by taking Highway # 16 north from Comanche. About six miles out, the cemetery can be seen on the left of the highway across a field. Turn left on to a county road and follow it around to the cemetery. The area is fenced and there is a tabernacle which makes the tract easier to locate. These inscriptions were copied in 1967 and revised in November of 1978.

The cemetery is very well maintained and is enclosed with a chain link fence. The entire cemetery has recently been sprayed with a weed killer leaving the enclosure barren of any vegetation. About 95 graves were counted with field stones or old funeral markers that did not have names or dates. Copied April 24, 1976 by Weldon Hudson of Fort Worth, Texas and copied from west to east.
